Music From the 70s, 80s, and 90s

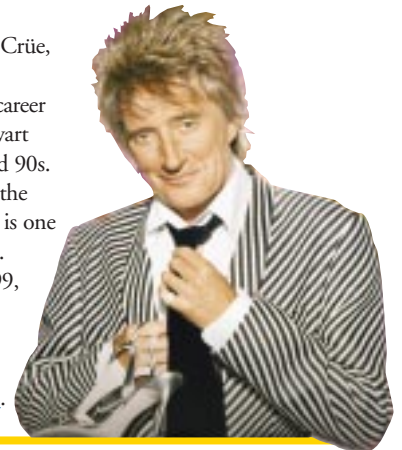

Live and in person Rock Legends from the last three decades. Celebrate the 70s with Rod Stewart, the 80s with Mötley Crüe, and the 90s with Slipknot at the Veterans Memorial Coliseum, the place to see Rock Stars.

Join thousands of fans as Rod Stewart performs his only Wisconsin appearance in 2005 on April 7th. Rod Stewart's career started in the 70s and he is currently one of the most respected songwriters and singers of the 21st century. See Rod Stewart performing songs from his new album "The Great American Song Book" along with his timeless hits of the 70s, 80s and 90s.

The 80s are back and so is Mötley Crüe's, "Red, White, & Crue 2005 Tour...Better Live Than Dead" which will fill the Coliseum April 9th at 8pm. This tour inspired by fans is rated #1 Tour on Pollstar.com and AOL Tickets. Mötley Crüe, is one of the most influential "Hair Bands" of the 80s. Rock out at the Coliseum the perfect place for big hair and great sound.

Join other metal fans for the Slipknot concert April 30th at 7:00pm. Bursting forth from the heartland of Iowa in 1999, Slipknot performs some of the most awe-inspiring rock the world has ever seen.

This wide array of musical sounds and styles demonstrates the Coliseum's flexibility as a great venue designed for all ages and generations. Tickets for these performances are available at the Coliseum Ticket office at 608-267-3995, or charge by phone 608-255-4646. Tickets are also available at Ticketmaster locations and online at www.ticketmaster.com.

Menagerie of Animals

Attendees from 70 of Wisconsin's 72 counties and 22 states gather for the 2005 Wisconsin Deer & Turkey Expo in Exhibition Hall April 8-10. Deer and Turkey Expo is the largest hunting tradeshow with 625 exhibit booths to visit and shop. Hunters have the opportunity to attend 50 seminars on white-tail deer and turkey hunting, habitat development and wild game preparation. For more information, www.deerinfo.com.

"The Circus Comes to Town," at the Midwest Horse Fair April 15-17 at the Alliant Energy Center. Midwest Horse Fair is expected to draw more than 50,000 horse enthusiasts to every corner of the Center's spacious campus. The Coliseum and Arena will host more than 1200 horses, 42 breeds and disciplines, 700 vendors, and superior clinicians for one of the busiest weekends in Madison. For tickets and more information on the Midwest Horse Fair visit www.midwesthorsefair.com.

The Great Midwest Alpaca Festival features 125 farms displaying 500 alpacas from throughout the U.S. on April 23 and 24 in the Coliseum. Competitions and events include a casual meet-and-greet reception, herdsire showcase, fun classes for children, silent auction, and seminars on the care and breeding of alpacas. Vendors will have quality alpaca yarn, clothing, teddy bears and equipment for sale. For more information visit www.gmaf.info.

The Midwest Spring Holstein Show will be in the Arena April 22 and 23. This national show provides 250 purebred Holstein dairy cattle the opportunity to attend World Dairy Expo. The Red and White will show on Friday April 22 and the Midwest National Holstein Show will be Saturday April 23. More information is available at www.wisholsteins.com.

The Next Generation

Imagine 3,000 of Wisconsin's best and brightest high school and college students gathered in one place to explore future careers. The Career Skills Expo, April 28-29, is Wisconsin's largest career education and skill showcase. Career Skills Expo brings together business, labor and industry with education to provide an arena for students to learn new skills and learn about careers related to health and technical occupations. The expo includes informational and educational exhibits, competitions, seminars, live demonstrations, employer interaction and hands-on activities. "...Wisconsin will be ready for a strong future because of Career Skills Expo and the active participation of education, business and labor working together to fill the demand for highly skilled and dependable workers..." explains Ken Starkman, Technology and Engineering Consultant with the Department of Public Instruction. Career Skills Expo is an education and career alignment event and extremely important to growing our future work force. If you would like more information visit www.careerskillsexpo.org.

The Kids Expo, April 23 and 24, fills 100,000 square feet of the Exhibition Hall with Madison's largest indoor playground. Parents and their excited children can shop the best products and services available on the market with family-friendly vendors. Saturday and Sunday activities will include entertainers, demonstrations, and hands-on activities. The entire family can choose from performances on four different stages and interactive play areas. Children can participate in many exciting features at the Kids Expo. For more information visit www.kids-expo.com.
