Award Winners Perform On Coliseum Stage

Dragon Tales Live is coming to Madison November 4–6! This larger than life musical mystery for young audiences features sing-along music, eye-popping special effects and non-stop fun during the multi-performances at Veterans Memorial Coliseum. The “Missing Music Mystery” follows the story of 6-year-old Emmy, her 4-year-old brother Max, and all of their dragon friends as they go on a magical adventure to solve the mystery of the missing music. While in Dragon Land, they all help each other overcome challenges and learn new ways to deal with their fears and problems. With audience participation, this show creates a unique theatre experience that teaches children cooperation and problem solving skills. Dragon Tales is PBS’s top-rated children’s program and this Broadway-style musical show features the original voices heard on the award-winning television series. There will be performances Friday at 7 p.m., Saturday at 10:30 a.m., 2 p.m. and 5:30 p.m., and Sunday at 1 p.m. and 4:30 p.m. To purchase tickets, call Ticketmaster at 608-255-4646 or buy them online at www.ticketmaster.com. For more information visit www.dragontaleslive.com.

Gretchen Wilson and Big n’ Rich perform at the Veterans Memorial Coliseum November 26th. These country superstars are legendary for their successful music, astounding vocals and hometown roots. Gretchen Wilson’s album, “Here for the Party”, debuted at #2 on Billboard’s Top 200 Album Chart and #1 on the Country Albums chart. The album went on to spend a record nine weeks atop the Country Albums Chart and has sold over four million copies. Her first single “Redneck Woman” spent six weeks at #1. She wrapped up 2004 as the top selling debut artist of any genre and placed herself in the record books. Big n’ Rich’s first album, “Horse of a Different Color” proved just as successful. Their single “Save a Horse, Ride a Cowboy” topped the charts. Also known for their singles “Big Time” and “Holy Water”, Big n’ Rich have made quite the mark. This duo even performs the ESPN College Football hit “Coming to Your City.” These Chevy Truck American Revolution Tour performers are definite crowd pleasers and with talent galore their concert will certainly be an exciting performance. Tickets for this concert are now available at the Coliseum Ticket Office, all Ticketmaster outlets, online at www.ticketmaster.com, or charge by phone at 608-255-4646. Be ready on November 26th because the Muzik Mafia is coming to the Veterans Memorial Coliseum!

One Weekend Three Great Shows In Exhibition Hall

November 19–20 will be an event-full weekend as the Exhibition Hall accommodates three remarkable trade shows. Anew Womens’ Expo returns to the Exhibition Hall and welcomes 10,000 women together under one roof to introduce them to many of the best products and services available.

The show will feature fantastic stages and hundreds of exhibits in areas of health, food, fashion, fitness, career, finance, entertainment, crafts, home, family and more. This year’s special guests include Soledad O’Brien, known from CNN’s American Morning, and Cynthia Rowley, a fashion designer who has a haute couture line and wrote “Swell: A Girl’s Guide to the Good Life.” These two successful women will share insights and experiences from their lives. Become empowered by stories of these ordinary women and their extraordinary opportunities. Come see the latest fashions and pamper yourself with free massages, exciting makeovers, and new hairstyles. Indulge yourself with free samples from area vendors and take the opportunity to learn some holiday treat tips and recipes. Also, receive guidance on how to invest wisely and control your personal finances. Anew Womens’ Expo is a weekend designed for the delight of women. For more information visit www.anewwomensexpo.com.

November 19–20 Exhibition Hall will host the Madison Gem and Mineral Show. Over 25 exhibits and demonstrations will be showcased, including a display from the UW Geology Museum. Exciting demonstrations will include the preparation of a dinosaur fossil, showing how the fossil gets from excavation to a science display; in addition, there will be flint knapping demonstrations for arrowhead making. Commercial exhibits from around the nation will offer perfect gift ideas with items ranging from loose gems to already-made jewelry and plenty more. Admission is $3 per person, and youth 12 and under are free.

The One of a Kind Rubber Stamp & Scrapbook Experience includes over 35 creative classes Friday–Sunday that will be led by national and published instructors.

In addition, over 40 national and local scrapbook and rubber stamp companies will be on hand Saturday and Sunday. Come ready to shop Saturday 9–4 and Sunday 10–4, along with viewing live demonstrations and make-n-takes. Admission is $6 and classes range from $8 to $50.
